

usually worth doing badly.

When you do something bring it to completion, even if it's not perfect. Something worth doing is

Work in complete units action.

Keep things you do often close or together. Keep friends and loved ones close too. Proximity breeds

Relationships in Time

Energy flows, or lack of, define our reality.

Sectors

when possible.

What we do exists in context. Knowing the effects of our actions vs. the amount of energy it takes to create them. Work for more effect for less energy

Relative Permanence

Permaculture in Action

Permaculture in Action

Eight Forms of Capital

<http://www.appleseedpermaculture.com/8-forms-of-capital/>

Capital	Currency
Social Capital	Connections
Material Capital	Materials; "natural" resources
Financial Capital	Money
Living Capital	Carbon, Nitrogen, Water
Intellectual Capital	Ideas, Knowledge
Experiential Capital	Action
Spiritual Capital	Prayer, Intention; Faith, Karma
Cultural Capital	Song, Story, Ritual

This framework gives us a chance to explore other forms of wealth, releasing money's grip and giving us the ability to live more balanced lives.

better together!

The world works by how well we interact with those around us. More than half of the world population lives in urban areas, this essentially means they live and interact with people all the time. The better our relationships, the more we can accomplish. It's

What Is Social Permaculture

Earth Care – People Care – Future Care

The core of permaculture. What we do has to be in the context of ethical decisions to achieve our most basic of goals, survival. It gives us direction.

The Ethics of Permaculture

It is three things: awareness, better process, and the goal of ensuring life on this planet. Clearly seeing, improving our action, and having a goal.

What is Permaculture?

Permaculture in Action

Permaculture in Action

Permaculture in Action

Change requires we do something. The more we do the more changes. Start with one thing. Change adds up.

- Take walks
- Get in shape
- Explore
- Talk to people
- Foster gratitude
- Love
- Plant a seed
- Don't push the river
- Connect
- Care for the world
- Limit media
- Recognize opportunities , recognize barriers
- Be mindful about your impact
- Everyone has their own power
- Eat whole & simple foods
- Take time to observe Ask yourself empowering questions and answer them
- Transition from a consumer to an active participant and producer